Classes and Rules

Registrants should select the class that best suits their vehicle. Some vehicles may fit into more than one class; it is the registrant's choice as to which class they enter.

Vintage Cars or Trucks (1940 and older): All cars domestic or foreign.

Modern Domestic cars (1976 and newer): All cars manufactured by a domestic brand (Ford, GM, Chrysler, Tesla, etc...) for model year 1990 and later. Includes stock and custom cars.

Classic Domestic cars (1941 to 1975): All cars manufactured by a domestic brand (Ford, GM, Chrysler, Rambler, etc...) from model years 1941 thru 1975. Includes stock and custom cars.

Modern Imported cars (1976 and newer): All cars manufactured by a foreign brand (Honda, VW, Jaguar, etc) for model year 1976 and later. Includes stock and custom cars.

Classic Imported cars (1941 to 1975): All cars manufactured by a foreign brand for model year 1941 to 1975. Includes stock and custom cars.

Trucks and Off Road: Trucks, Jeeps, sport utility vehicles and any vehicle designed for work or off-road use, of any year and brand. Includes both stock and custom vehicles.

Pro Street: vehicles of any year and brand that have been modified for drag racing.

Rat Rod: vehicles of any year and brand that exhibit patina or finish and modifications such as lowering, chop tops and other features that celebrate the functional hot rods of the 30s, 40s and 50s.

Survivor: vehicles manufactured for model year 1989 and older from any brand that are substantially original and unmodified. Minor paint work and cosmetic or mechanical repairs are allowed but vehicles that have been significantly restored are excluded.

Work In Progress: Cars that run and drive, but are projects under construction.
